

Table with multiple columns containing race information, horse names, jockey names, and results. The table is organized into rows for different races, with columns for race details, horse performance, and betting information. It includes a header for the 2016 fiscal year and various sub-sections for different races and conditions.