

Table with multiple columns containing horse names, jockey names, race details, and odds. Headers include race type (e.g., 1R), date, and race name. Entries list horse numbers, names, jockeys, and various statistics like start times and weights. The table is organized into blocks by race type and day.