

Table with columns for race number, year, date, track, distance, time, weight, and horse details. The table is organized into multiple sections, each representing a different race. Each section includes a header with race information and a grid of horse data with various symbols and numbers.