

Table with multiple columns including race details (year, date, track, race name), horse information (number, name, sex, age, weight, trainer), race results (position, time, margin), and prize money. The table is organized into several sections based on race dates and track types.