

Table with columns for race number, date, race name, start time, distance, track condition, race type, prize money, and horse details (horse name, trainer, sex, age, weight, height, and race results). The table is organized into multiple sections, each starting with a race number and date, followed by a list of horses and their performance data.